

Hint box!

Relative pronouns are:

who, whose, when, where, which, with, that, whom.

e.g. Jennifer, who was in year six, was very good at maths.

The underlined clause is the relative clause and starts with a relative pronoun (who).

1. Match the relative clause to the most appropriate sentence.

Martin, , is in a band.
Nandos, , is my favourite restaurant.
My cat,, is called Tumble.
December, , is my favourite month of the year.
Carrots, , grow in the ground.

which help you see in the dark whose claws are very sharp where we eat every Thursday who plays the guitar
when it usually snows

2. Circle the relative pronoun in each of these sentences.

- a) The flowers, which are on the table, were given to me by my mum.
- b) Johnny, who is a builder, enjoys working outside.
- c) Grandad, whose hearing is going, prefers listening to the radio to watching the television
- d) India, where I went on holiday last month, is famous for growing rice.

3. Rewrite these sentences inserting the correct punctuation. (Don't forget your commas!)

a) our teacher who is called mrs harris loves teaching us history

b) the summer holidays which are about six weeks long always go too quickly

c) at 8 o' clock when I've got ready for bed my dad will read me a book

4. Circle the correct relative pronoun for each sentence.

a) Cristiano Ronaldo, (where/ who/ when) is an amazing footballer, plays for Real Madrid.

b) Paris, (which/ with/ who) is the capital of France, is the home to the Eiffel Tower.

c) My brother, (with/ when/ whose) wife had a baby last month, is a few years older than me.

Hint box!

Relative pronouns are:

who, whose, when, where, which, with, that, whom.

e.g. Jennifer, who was in year six, was very good at maths.

The underlined clause is the relative clause and starts with a relative pronoun (who).

1. Match the relative clause to the most appropriate sentence.

Martin,, is in a band.	which help you see in the dark
Nandos,, is my favourite restaurant.	whose claws are very sharp
My cat,, is called Tumble.	where we eat every Thursday
December,, is my favourite month of the year.	who plays the guitar
Carrots,, grow in the ground.	when it usually snows

2. Circle the relative pronoun in each of these sentences.

- a) The flowers which are on the table, were given to me by my mum.
- b) Johnny who is a builder, enjoys working outside.
- c) Grandad whose hearing is going, prefers listening to the radio to watching the television
- d) India where went on holiday last month, is famous for growing rice.

3. Rewrite these sentences inserting the correct punctuation. (Don't forget your commas!)

a) our teacher who is called mrs harris loves teaching us history

Our teacher, who is called Mrs Harris, loves teaching us history.

b) the summer holidays which are about six weeks long always go too quickly

The summer holidays, which are about six weeks long, always go too quickly.

c) at 8 o' clock when I've got ready for bed my dad will read me a book

At 8 o' clock, when I've got ready for bed, my dad will read me a book.

4. Circle the correct relative pronoun for each sentence.

a) Cristiano Ronaldo, (where/ who/ when) is an amazing footballer, plays for Real Madrid.

b) Paris, (which/ with/ who) is the capital of France, is the home to the Eiffel Tower.

c) My brother, (with/ when/ whose) wife had a baby last month, is a few years older than me.